MEBLE POLSKA 2023 – the largest furniture sourcing trade fair in Poland

On 21-24 February 2023, the next edition of the MEBLE POLSKA fair – the largest furniture sourcing fair in Central and Eastern Europe – will take place in Poznań. Registration of furniture buyers from Poland and abroad who want to participate in this event is currently underway. Visitors from 70 countries have already signed up to participate in the fair.

The largest exhibition of Polish furniture

The MEBLE POLSKA Furniture Trade Fair is the largest exhibition of the Polish furniture offer in the world. Most leading Polish furniture manufacturers will present their offer at the trade fair. In addition to regular exhibitors, there will also be many companies present in Poznań for the first time. The thematic scope of the fair will cover products from all price segments: upholstered furniture, case furniture made of furniture board and solid wood, and mattresses. Visitors will also have the opportunity to see the offer of foreign exhibitors from Turkey, Cyprus, Denmark, Uzbekistan, Serbia and Germany.

Also Ukraine will be strongly represented at the MEBLE POLSKA. More than a dozen Ukrainian companies have signed up to participate in the fair and will have their own stands in the pavilions. In addition a large national stand will be organized by the Ukrainian Association of Furniture Manufacturers. There you will be able to see the products of more than 30 furniture manufacturers from the country.

As every year, the MEBLE POLSKA Furniture Trade Fair will be accompanied in Hall 5A by the HOME DECOR Interior Trade Fair .

Free admission only for registered professionals

The interest of furniture buyers in participation in the Poznań contracting event is huge. Visitors from 70 countries have already collected tickets for the fair. In addition to representatives of buyers groups and furniture chains from Europe or North America, visitors from such exotic markets as: Algeria, Saudi Arabia, China, Ghana, India, Israel, Lebanon, Mali, Mauritius, Mongolia, Nigeria, Senegal, Togo or United Arab Emirates have already confirmed their participation.

Why is it worth registering online now? Early online registration will allow you to avoid queues at the entrance to the fair, but also to save money. The representatives of the furniture industry who register online before the fair will be granted free admission to the event. After this date, the cost of a ticket for professionals will be PLN 50. – In this way, we
